A 'hit' from its first performance in Dublin in 1742, Handel's Messiah is performed by choral groups large and small around the globe every year and remains the most popular oratorio of all time. Whether you are hearing it for the first time or the fiftieth time, the work never fails to move its audience as it retells the most famous story of all.

Christmas isn't Christmas without Auckland Choral's Messiah under the baton of the effervescent Uwe Grodd.
